LIGHTWEIGHT PUGILIST IS IN JAIL

When Sergeant H. C. Peterson arrested Cornelius Jackson, colored, and charged him with vagrancy, Saturday night, he did not know that he was jailing a lightweight pugilist who has had his picture in the newspapers. A newspaper cut of himself in fighting costume was found carefully wrapped when he was searched and he explained that he is "Kid" Williams, a coming lightweight.

Jackson was brought before Judge W. H. Reeder in police court this morning, but he said nothing concerning his activity along pugilistic lines.
The judge took his case under advisement.

Charles Blair, the "cowpuncher" who was arrested Friday night and charged with vagrancy was sentenced to serve fifteen days or pay a fine of $15. Blair admitted that he had carried a gun and the big revolver was exhibited in court this morning.

In the case of the city against Martin Smith, charged with permitting his horses to graze on private property, City Attorney Valentine Gideon moved for a dismissal on the grounds that Smith had agreed to pay costs and make good the damage. The motion was granted.
